

Singapore Government-Linked Companies

Project Title	Singapore Government-Linked Companies
Project Summary	Research government-linked companies in Singapore and their subsidiaries
Country	Singapore
Country/Region of Focus	Singapore

Project Description

Support Embassy Singapore's efforts to identify government-linked companies (GLCs) in Singapore and their subsidiaries through a process of rigorous research utilizing open source information. Singapore has an extensive network of GLCs that play a substantial role in Singapore's domestic economy, especially in strategically important sectors including telecommunications, media, public transportation, defense, port, gas, electricity grid, and airport operations. In addition, the GLCs are also present in many other sectors of the economy, including banking, subway, airline, consumer/lifestyle, commodities trading, oil and gas engineering, postal services, infrastructure, and real estate. This Virtual Intern position will be responsible for developing company profiles on Singapore's GLCs and their subsidiaries. Strong analytical, economic, writing, and communications skills required.
